Fourth Sunday of Easter

On this 4th Sunday of Easter – also known as Good Shepherd Sunday – we join the Church in celebrating the 61st World Day of Prayer for Vocations. We pray that all receive the grace to discern and faithfully live their vocation as disciples of Christ – married, single, ordained, or religious. We ask especially for vocations to our diocesan priesthood, diaconate, the Society of Jesus, Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet and Sister of St. Francis of the Newmann Community.

We pray also for an increase in the recognition of the baptismal equality of women that endows them with the same capacity to be called to ordained ministry: “In Christ, women and men are clothed with the same baptismal dignity and receive equally the variety of gifts of the Spirit,” states the interim document from the ongoing Synod on Synodality. “We are called together into a communion of loving, non-competitive relationships in Christ, and to a co-responsibility to be expressed at every level of the Church’s life.” (9b) Let us all continue to listen to the Spirit speaking through our Synodal journey as we work to create the inclusive and authentic Community that Jesus envisioned. Amen!

Our Black Catholic Taskforce is filled with gratitude for the wonderful success of last weekend’s Convocation of Catholics of African Descent! Our collective efforts surpassed all expectations, leaving an energy in Central New York and beyond. The resonance of our celebration of culture and faith is profound, even reaching friends as far as Florida who joined us via livestream. The excitement and gratitude of many serve as a testament to the exceptional experience we provided for all who attended. It speaks volumes about the strength of our parish community — as well as the need to reinvigorate Ministry with Catholics of African Descent.

The Taskforce and Pastoral Team extends special thanks to the Caring Hands Committee for their outstanding contributions. The beautiful décor, delicious food, and warm hospitality created an atmosphere of warmth and inclusion. Darris and Millie Williams are thanked for their exceptional hospitality towards ValLimar and Frank, providing transportation and seeing that they were well nourished.

As a Parish we all express deep gratitude to Lauren Hardee-Chase for her leadership and the entire Black Catholic Taskforce for making this event a reality! Before leaving, our Keynote speaker, ValLimar Jansen noted that if she lived anywhere in this area, All Saints would be her Parish!

As we bask in the afterglow of this event, the Taskforce notes that there is still work to be done! Stay tuned!

FIRST EUCHARIST MASS: SATURDAY, MAY 4, 1pm! Let us continue to hold each of our 15 children and their families in our prayer as they make their final preparations for this beautiful Sacrament!

A HUGE thank you to ALL who contributed in honor or memory of loved ones for our beautiful Easter flowers! The donations go beyond the Easter Season to help keep our sacred space graced with living plants and flowers throughout the year! Please see the list attached to this Bulletin.

NEW BOOK STUDY BEGINS THIS TUESDAY – April 23! 10-11:15am – The Group will begin discussing “FOLLOWING CHRIST in a CONSUMER SOCIETY” by John E. Kavanaugh. In our era of fraud, corruption and the relentless celebration of image over substance, Kavanaugh’s impassioned plea that we turn away from the false and dehumanizing gospel of consumerism and embrace our true humanity in Christ is, perhaps, more urgent than when he first wrote it. All are Welcome! The Group will continue for 6 weeks – ending on May 28. Gatherings are in the Tomczak Room in church. Please contact Michael Songer at 315-466-8482 OR allsaintsff@syrdio.org to arrange for a book. For those able, a $7 donation for the book is appreciated.

BIBLE STUDY: WHO IS THE HOLY SPIRIT?? This week Our Bible Study groups continue a 6-week study of Biblical References to the Spirit, in preparation for the Feast of Pentecost – when we celebrate the “descent of the Holy Spirit.” Tuesday evenings and Wednesday mornings groups will share lessons on texts mentioning the Spirit in the Old Testament; then during the first three weeks of May, will study references to the Holy Spirit in the New Testament, culminating in the Feast of Pentecost on May 19. All are welcome to join. Please contact Mary Jureller [text: 315-382-8039 or email: giege39@gmail.com] so she can order enough booklets.

From the LGBTQ+ Taskforce: All are invited to gather on TUESDAY, May 7 at 7pm in church for an open dialogue on issues and concerns raised by the new Vatican Document “Dignitas Infinita” (“Infinite Dignity”), as well as the Letter written by the Mom of a transgender child to Pope Francis. Links to the Letter & the Vatican Document can be found here. Hard copies are available in our Greeting Area.
